Across the globe, memorial museums have been created as living spaces to commemorate and educate the public about past atrocities. Join Dr. Amy Sodaro, author of Exhibiting Atrocity: Memorial Museums and the Politics of Past Violence (2018) and Lifting the Shadow: Reshaping Memory, Race and Slavery in US Museums (2025), as she explores the interconnections between the Holocaust museum paradigm and institutions established to memorialize slavery and racial terrorism in the US.

This event is part of the 2024-25 Kupferberg Holocaust Center at Queensborough Community College (KHC) and National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) Colloquium, "Circuitous Exchanges," in collaboration with "Unseen Threads," a partnership between the KHC and QCC's Truth, Racial Healing, and Transformation Campus Center. It is co-sponsored by:
